WILL COLLABORATE TO FREE CZECHOSLOVAKIA -- Stockholm Morgon Tidningen, 17 Aug 50

A group of refugee Czechs and Sudeten Germans, expelled from Czecho-🖍 slovakia, announced yesterday in London that they intend to cooperate to liberate Czechoslovakia.

A political agreement has been signed by the Czechoslovak National Committee in London and the General Committee for the Protection of Sudeten German Interests which is in Munich. The movement is reported to have the unofficial support of the West German government. The expelled Sudeten Germans are to be permitted to return to their homeland.

FORMER CZECH AMBASSADOR DEFECTS -- Stockholm Svenska Dagbladet, 10 Aug 50

Dr. Josef Lelek, former Czechoslovak ambassador to Nationalist China, has defected. He was recalled last year, but he submitted his resignation in a letter to Prague. "You have betrayed my country and humanity to gain the favor of the Kremlin," he wrote.
